Policies and Procedures

TUITION POLICY

For your convenience, the Celebration Academy of the Arts offers three payment options:

1. Payment in full in advance by semester.
2. Online payments through your checking account, Visa, MasterCard or debit card.*
3. Automatic withdrawal by month or semester.

* For online payments:

Go to www.firstbaptistraytown.com/cata

 Automatic Withdrawal System:

To utilize First Baptist Raytown's automatic withdrawal system, fill out the application form completely and return it with a voided blank check. The application form can be downloaded when you register online or you may fill out the authorization for direct payments section on the back of this page.

These payment options are available for any class or private lessons. Please see other inserts for fee descriptions.

ABSENCE POLICY (PRIVATE LESSONS)

Make-up lessons for one reported absence per student are provided during the week following the conclusion of each semester, during the student's regularly scheduled time. The academy will also offer make-up lessons for lessons missed due to teacher absence or inclement weather. Cancellation of lessons due to inclement weather will be based on the Raytown Public School System.

TEACHER CONTRACT

The faculty of Celebration Academy of the Arts signed a contract upon their hire that if at any time they cease to be affiliated with the academy, they will not attempt to take their students to another location.

CHILD PROTECTION

In accordance with the Child Protection Policy implemented by First Baptist Raytown, all private lessons must take place within the church facility and in a room with a security camera. All lessons will be videotaped to ensure the safety of the students. In addition, background checks are performed on all faculty upon their hire.

Contract

The following criteria must be met in order to sign the contract.

- Student commitment. By signing this contract, the student is committing to the full semester. If the semester is broken into two non-penalty payments (e.g. spring semester), the student is still committing to attend for the full semester.
- Student attendance. Attendance is vital for the progress of each student. In many cases, the students' commitment to attendance becomes imperative for the success of the class. (E.g. in a drama class where skits and plays are involved, students depend on each other's presence in order to properly rehearse.)
- Supplies. Students are expected to bring the necessary supplies, scripts and/or assigned music to class each week.
- At home preparation. Drama students are expected to memorize lines outside of class and come prepared to meet the memorization deadlines set by the instructor. Band students are expected to practice on their own so the teacher can focus rehearsals on ensemble work. Private music students are expected to practice at home on a daily basis.
- Tuition. Tuition is due in advance and is non-refundable unless the class is cancelled due to insufficient enrollment. In this case, instruction fees will be refunded. For tracking purposes, the academy will only accept checks or money orders, payable to FBR Celebration Academy.
- Make-up policy. In the week following the conclusion of each semester, the academy will provide make-up lessons for one reported absence per student during the student's usual scheduled time. The academy will also offer make-up lessons for lessons missed due to teacher absence or inclement weather. Cancellation of lessons due to inclement weather will be based on the Raytown Public School System.
